

CEDAC'S PUBLICATIONS

CEDAC's various publications are divided into summary notebooks concerning its activity over a two-year period on several branches: historical sheets published on the magazine "Circo" (which are always updated every time a new documents found) promotion activities such as exhibitions, conventions, the pledge of agreements with various organisations, the creation and enlargement of private archives, and the thesis section. Another relevant publication is a volume about the history of circus in Verona.

